

Greeter's Core Values

- We believe that every person is a child of God with a soul that can be saved.
- We believe in affirming others with expressions of God's hope, love, and forgiveness.
- We believe in performing our duties with excellence.
- We believe that we provide the newcomer with the first impression of the church and its members, and that the first impression is vitally important and lasting.
- We believe that each person we meet should be respected for their individual differences and be accepted with the genuine love of God.
- We believe in the need to have a personal relationship with the Lord through daily devotions, prayer, and the reading of God's Word.
- We believe we need to be accountable and committed to the Lord and His people.

Greetings!

The Greeting Team At Its Best!

"The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore, pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into this harvest"

(Mt. 9:37-38).

New Hope Greeting

- 1 Let the joy of the Lord flow from your heart!
- 2 Pray for the Holy Spirit to keep you sensitive to the seeker's needs.
- 3 SMILE!
- 4 Express words of encouragement, humility, and love.
- 5 Maintain good eye contact.
- 6 Give a warm "New Hope hug," cheek to cheek (without other body contact) or a light pat on the shoulder.
- 7 Use the time it takes to write a person's nametag to their advantage-build them up, make them feel comfortable, bring out their best.
- 8 As they leave the service, continue to affirm what God is doing in their lives "God bless you," "Isn't God awesome?" "See you next week," "Have a great day in the Lord!"
- 9 Expressions of God's love and care will make our first impressions last.

A Greeter's Weekly Preparation

- Ask God to use you mightily during the time you serve.
- Pray for the church services and for the people involved in the services.
- Ask for blessings on those attending the services.
- Pray for the people making important decisions in their lives.
Read the Bible daily. You can use the New Hope Bible bookmark.
Keep a journal of daily readings and gems from God's Word.
- Worship at home.

Praying daily brings you closer to God and allows you to grow.

Mission Statement

The purpose of the Greeter's Ministry is to provide a first and lasting impression of genuine love, warmth, and acceptance to every individual the Lord brings to New Hope.
