

Thou hast made us for
thyself, O Lord

And our hearts are restless....

Until they rest in thee.

If you are looking for love this Valentine's Day—real, satisfying, lasting love, there is only one place you can truly find it—in Jesus.

The man who wrote the quote above tried it all. He was brilliant, and admired. Unmarried, he had fathered a son, but he was empty inside.

Empty until he met Jesus. In Jesus he found what his heart was seeking—a love he could eternally rest in. Consider Jesus and let him fill the empty place in your heart.

Thou hast made us for
thyself, O Lord

And our hearts are
restless....

Until they rest in thee.

If you are looking for love this Valentine's Day—real, satisfying, lasting love, there is only one place you can truly find it—in Jesus.

The man who wrote the quote above tried it all. He was brilliant, and admired. Unmarried, he had fathered a son, but he was empty inside.

Empty until he met Jesus. In Jesus he found what his heart was seeking—a love he could eternally rest in. Consider Jesus and let him fill the empty place in your heart.

Thou hast made us for thyself, O Lord . . .

and our
hearts are
restless . . .

until they rest in thee.

If you are looking for love this Valentine's Day—real, satisfying, lasting love, there is only one place you can truly find it—in Jesus.

The man who wrote the quote above tried it all. He was brilliant, and admired. Unmarried, he had fathered a son, but he was empty inside.

Empty until he met Jesus. In Jesus, Augustine found what his heart was seeking—a love he could eternally rest in.

This Valentine's Day, stop looking for love in unsatisfying places. Consider Jesus and let him fill the empty place in your heart.

Thou hast made us for thyself, O Lord . . .

and our
hearts are
restless . . .

until they rest in thee.

If you are looking for love this Valentine's Day—real, satisfying, lasting love, there is only one place you can truly find it—in Jesus.

The man who wrote the quote above tried it all. He was brilliant, and admired. Unmarried, he had fathered a son, but he was empty inside.

Empty until he met Jesus. In Jesus, Augustine found what his heart was seeking—a love he could eternally rest in.

This Valentine's Day, stop looking for love in unsatisfying places. Consider Jesus and let him fill the empty place in your heart.

Thou hast made us
for thyself, O Lord,
and our hearts are
restless until they rest
in Thee.

If you are looking for
love this
Valentine's Day—
real, satisfying,
lasting love, there is only
one place you
can truly find it—in Jesus.

The man who wrote the quote above tried it all.
He was brilliant, and admired. He had friends. Unmarried, he had fathered a son, but he was empty inside.

Empty until he met Jesus. In Jesus, Augustine found what his heart was seeking—a love he could eternally rest in.

This Valentine's Day, stop looking for love in unsatisfying places. Consider Jesus and let him
fill the empty place in your heart.

Thou hast made us
for thyself, O Lord,
and our hearts are
restless until they rest
in Thee.

If you are looking for
love this
Valentine's Day—
real, satisfying,
lasting love, there is only
one place you
can truly find it—in Jesus.

The man who wrote the quote above tried it all.
He was brilliant, and admired. He had friends. Unmarried, he had fathered a son, but he was empty inside.

Empty until he met Jesus. In Jesus, Augustine found what his heart was seeking—a love he could eternally rest in.

This Valentine's Day, stop looking for love in unsatisfying places. Consider Jesus and let him
fill the empty place in your heart.

On the back of either a bulletin insert or a postcard, then let people know that you want them to find real love in Jesus.

You might:

- Announce an upcoming sermon series
- Provide some links to evangelistic websites
- Invite them to a seeker small group
- Ask them to join a FaceBook group on Finding real love....in Jesus or whatever topic you might think up
- Let them know you have people they can email or call if they have questions about the Christian faith.
- Use it as a time to launch or invite people to an upcoming Alpha course
- Launch or announce any other exciting, interesting or any other event your church is doing to introduce people to the Christian faith, your church and Jesus

*For additional resources, links you can use for your website, etc., go to my website, this page has a list of gospel, apologetic and Christian growth sites you can recommend:

<http://www.effectivechurchcom.com/2009/12/faith-resources/>

Valentine's Day is one holiday you know you can speak to the real needs of people, because everyone needs love.

Pray lots that your church might use it as a time to channel this God-given desire into a love for Jesus.

On the back of either a bulletin insert or a postcard, then let people know that you want them to find real love in Jesus.

You might:

- Announce an upcoming sermon series
- Provide some links to evangelistic websites
- Invite them to a seeker small group
- Ask them to join a FaceBook group on Finding real love....in Jesus or whatever topic you might think up
- Let them know you have people they can email or call if they have questions about the Christian faith.
- Use it as a time to launch or invite people to an upcoming Alpha course
- Launch or announce any other exciting, interesting or any other event your church is doing to introduce people to the Christian faith, your church and Jesus

*For additional resources, links you can use for your website, etc., go to my website, this page has a list of gospel, apologetic and Christian growth sites you can recommend:

<http://www.effectivechurchcom.com/2009/12/faith-resources/>

Valentine's Day is one holiday you know you can speak to the real needs of people, because everyone needs love.

Pray lots that your church might use it as a time to channel this God-given desire into a love for Jesus.