

This Mother's Day, give Mom something better than flowers or chocolate

Better than flowers or chocolate—how can that be? Flowers are a treasured tradition and chocolate is, well—chocolate—what more needs to be said?

You know Mom will appreciate these things, but there is something that would mean even more.

You already know what that is. You know she would love it if every Sunday you were where you are now, with her in church.

It isn't simply your physical presence that is meaningful, although she loves to be with you. What would make it meaningful is if you were coming as a faithful follower of Jesus.

There may be many reasons why “faithful follower of Jesus” does not describe your life today. Maybe:

- When you were young, you were excited about the church and Jesus, but you feel you've outgrown it.
- You had questions the church couldn't answer, so you went looking elsewhere and never came back.
- Life is simply too busy and church never was much of a priority.

Whatever the reason, take some time to consider Jesus. Here are some websites that might be useful:

After doing that—tell Mom about it, talk about it and give her joy that won't fade like even the most beautiful flowers do.

Some Websites that are helpful in an exploration of who is Jesus and why he is important to consider.

<http://www.whoisjesus-really.com>

Very complete site, well-done, lots of sections that give a complete picture of Jesus and how to have a relationship with Him.

<http://www.allaboutjesuschrist.org/who-is-jesus-n.htm>

Solid, text intensive answers. Very good short video on the side of opening page with brief challenge, "who is Jesus?"

<http://www.christiananswers.net/jesus/home.html>

Lots of clickable links to answers about Jesus, layout of the website isn't its strongest point, but content very solid.

<http://www.whosjesus.com>

Very contemporary, interactive media presentation of questions and answers about Jesus.
