

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor
....get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor
....get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor
....get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor
....get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?

have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?
have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?
have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?
have latte
with the pastor

get answers

have questions?
have latte
with the pastor

get answers

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for
coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for
coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

Thanks so much for sharing Easter with us!

If you don't attend church much, you heard some pretty outrageous claims about Jesus—that he really walked on earth, that he claimed to be the Son of God and Savior of the world.

Then you heard that his death was not some tragic mistake, but his intentional choice to pay the penalty for the sins of humanity.

Most outrageous of all is the claim that on the third day Jesus conquered death and he is alive today and wants to give you the gift of forgiveness and eternal life—life to the full now and forever.

It's not a gift to be received without careful consideration, because to accept Jesus as Savior means you must be willing to follow Him as Lord.

We've love to talk to you about it.

Join us for
coffee and conversation.
Ask any question
you'd like about the Christian faith.

We promise courteous,
thoughtful interaction
and answers.

After the chocolate is gone and the Easter eggs eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

Join us at our church in the coming weeks.

After the chocolate is gone and the Easter eggs eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

Join us at our
church in the coming weeks.

After the chocolate is gone and the Easter eggs eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

Join us at our
church in the coming weeks.

After the chocolate is gone and the Easter eggs eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

Join us at our
church in the coming weeks.

After the chocolate is gone
and the Easter eggs
eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

here's how

After the chocolate is gone
and the Easter eggs
eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

here's how

After the chocolate is gone
and the Easter eggs
eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

here's how

After the chocolate is gone
and the Easter eggs
eaten—

Explore the story
behind them.

here's how

