Links to some Templates & Resources on Effective Church Communications

Following are the links to materials mentioned on the video about Templates at Effective Church Communications, plus some related ebooks that go with them Links to a few of the ones not mentioned are at the end of this list—again, this is just a tiny sample of all the templates available on the site.

Many hours went into the creation of these templates: finding images, making sure they were copyright OK, modifying images, designing the publications, writing, layout, typesetting—and all that work is done so you can do some minor modifications, if you want and make them your own. These templates are FREE to Effective Church Communication Members and the templates are one of the best reasons to join Effective Church Communications
