Looking For Something
this Easter?

We all are.

It may not be as obvious as a child's search for candy and Easter eggs, but for we all search for something often undefined, but never gone from the whispers in our mind when all around us is quiet.

To satisfy our search we collect experiences, toys, relationships, but after all that, often come to the same conclusion as did C.S. Lewis:

If I have found a desire within myself that no experience in this world can satisfy; the most probable explanation is that I was made for another world.

Easter is about the other world, the other life Jesus makes possible.

Join us this Easter to find out more.

Most of us go through life searching for something—

Success

Love

Experiences

Self-fulfillment

....all good things, but seldom do we quit searching
even after we find them.

The extraordinary news of Easter is that life is that we can quit searching and allow ourselves to be found by Jesus.

That's what He died and conquered death for—to bring the creation He loved back into a relationship with our Creator.

This Easter join us and learn to rest and learn what it means to let Jesus find you.

What do you think your life would be like if you believed in the Jesus?

Boring? Constricted? An endless series of don't do this or that? Intellectual suicide?

At Easter, consider. . . .

Christians claim that Jesus conquered death. If that's true imagine what it would mean to become a friend and follower of Jesus, Someone, totally and eternally ALIVE?

Someone who spoke and the worlds, galaxies, stars and starfish, came into being?

Someone who, when he walked the earth, played with children, was a great party guest, healed sick people, loved enough to die for all of us.

Challenging, exciting, never-ending and never alone—more than you can ever imagine is the life you can discover this Easter, in Jesus.
